OLD BUSINESS:

Long-Term Ground Water Study

Jim Billups reported he has four tip-bucket county rain gauges to use in the long-term Palomar Mountain ground water study. He intends to place three gauges at the observatory, the lodge, and the state park. He needs three gauge stands for them. The Board approved purchasing the stands for a total of $250. Jim Billups noted that Dr. Dan Henderson, a new PhD recipient, is working on a rain model for the Tijuana aquifer.
